URBAN SKIES MUSIC

New York, New York - Urban Skies Music is pleased to announce the release of Mara Sanchez latest CD, Open Windows (Ventanas Abiertas) in which Mara, captures the myriad stories and flavors of her native New York through a unique mix of world beat, jazz, flamenco and Latin fusion. The songs are original compositions by Mara. She is joined by musicians Michael Weeden - Guitar and Bass, Elvin Cartagena -Guitar, Ryan Fitch - Drums, Edwin Hernandez - Keyboard and Gene Hicks-Keyboards. The cd marks her foray into songwriting with songs influenced by Latin Pop and jazz genres. It also includes a unique recording of Café Tacuba's "Avientame." Open Windows showcases Mara's versatility and broad appeal through singles such as "Boom Boom," an amalgam of jazz and flamenco over a driving Latin bass beat.

About Mara Sanchez

Mara's journey as a performer and songwriter began in New York City as the leader of a Latin Jazz world-beat group called Urban Skies. Playing in Europe, Japan and venues like the Apollo Theater, S.O.B's, and CAMI Hall, Mara began to quickly cultivate both local and international followings. She has performed with greats like Stevie Wonder, and has worked with renowned Broadway musical directors Michael Dansicker and Kent Gash.

Mara has also amassed a fast growing list of television, commercial, voiceover, film, and theater credits appearing on All My Children and PBS. She enjoys a rich acting career, gracing the stages of some of New York's most reputable off-Broadway theaters like The Public, Theater Row and Perry Street while additionally tackling challenging roles in a number of independent films.

Recently Mara delighted the audience when she performed at the Apollo Theater's historic stage. She was also a featured performer for Disney's tribute to Chita Rivera. She has released a CD of original music "Open Windows" which has been met with great enthusiasm and has receives airplay on Break-Through Radio. She was also invited and featured on Puerto Rico's premier radio station - Radio Oro and interviewed live. Mara has toured in Europe and Japan and continues to stretch herself as a performer. Mara has a Bachelor's degree in Theater from SUNY Binghamton, a Master's degree in Music Education from Hunter College, NY, and a member of BMI.
